19 ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER TO INTERVENE

20 On this date, the Court considered the MOTION BY THE UNITED STATES TO 21 INTERVENE UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 24(b)(1)(B). The Court finds that there is a "question of 22 law or fact in common" between this civil action and a criminal grand jury investigation. The 23 Court further finds that the government has jurisdictional grounds to intervene, and that its 24 motion is timely.

25 It is therefore Ordered that the Motion be GRANTED. The United States of America, 26 through the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, is permitted to intervene in this 27 action for the purpose of seeking to limit discovery in this civil action. The parties and the Clerk
